

Bek Collection
1 Hollinger; 0.25 cu. Ft.

Box/Folder	Description
1/1	Finding Aide
1/2	St. Louis in Former Years by E.D. Kargau, pp. 1-216 translation
1/3	St. Louis in Former Years by E.D. Kargau, pp. 217-407 & index of names (44 pages) translation
1/4	The Germans in Missouri and part of the introduction to The German Element in the United States of North America, 1818-1848. translation
1/5	The Experiences and Adventures of the Stephanites Who Emigrated From Saxony. (75 pages plus cover letter) translation
1/6	Seventy-Five years in the Old and new world by Heinrich Boernstein, vol. 1 (252 pages) translation
1/7	Seventy-Five years in the Old and new world by Heinrich Boernstein, vol. 2 (215 pages) translation
1/8	A German Communistic Society in Missouri by William Bek (c. 1908-1911)
1/9	Travel in Missouri, 1838 by Eduard Zimmerman (reprint from Missouri Historical Review) translation
1/10	Survivals of Old Marriage-Customs Among the Low Germans of West Missouri. By William G. Bek (reprint from the Journal of American Folklore) 1908.
1/11	George Engelmann, Man of Science by William G. Bek in Missouri Historical Review, 1929.
1/12	Carl Schurz, Statesman Manuscript of President's Address Fortnightly Club, Grand Forks, ND, 1927.